OFFICER DAVID WHITE SCHOLARSHIP 2017

Naperville Park District presents the 11th annual Officer David White Scholarship

BACKGROUND:

On an evening in early September 2006, Officer David White, a Naperville Park Police Officer, was ending his shift. However, before he did so, he drove through a nearby park to make one more check of the area. Upon doing so, he found a young man in distress and took action to save his life.

An excerpt from a letter written by the young man's mother explained her family's gratitude: "Because of Officer White going above and beyond the normal process, following his instincts and (with) genuine concern for the safety of the people he comes in contact with, he saved (a) life. There are no words that could ever express our appreciation for Officer White's efforts; by listening to his heart, he has forever affected the life of our family."

For his actions, Officer White received the Park Police Life Saving Award. A local donor began a fund that awards a $2,000 scholarship each year to a deserving college student who demonstrates a strong commitment to compassionate public service. In the donor's words, "The purpose of the scholarship is to inspire our next generation of public servants to care enough to exert the extra effort, to take a second look."

The 2017 scholarship fund has increased from $2,000 to $4,000, thanks to a donation through the Naperville Parks Foundation from Mayor Emeritus A. George Pradel from his remaining campaign funds.
